Second Sunday of Advent – Preparing for the Lord

This season of Advent heralds the coming of Emmanuel, “God with us”. It is the time we realize when our God comes to earth to take on human form and live on earth just as we live. He does it as he shares his life and love with us. When God shares his love with us he invites us to share our love with Him and with others. Advent is the time of waiting as we prepare ourselves to welcome the God who became man and who by example showed us how we too should be able to live like him for others. Advent means waiting. We wait for someone we love and we long to meet that person. In today’s Gospel Luke beautifully places the beginning of John the Baptist’s ministry within a historical context.

In the first reading Prophet Baruch reminds the people of Israel that they have to share the gift of joy with others by calling them to put on the garment of integrity. God is asking them not to be part of the sad story of corruption.

In the second reading, we have the apostle Paul stating that he prays with joy for the Philippians, his loyal partners in work of evangelization. He was praying for them to be blameless and pure. He prayed that they may have the grace to discern between right and wrong, good and evil. We, too, like the Philippians must be known to be men and women of goodwill.

The message of today’s gospel is repentance. This repentance is from Greek word ‘Metanoia’ which means a total change of heart. True repentance is not a matter of doing or not doing certain things, but a CHANGE OF ATTITUDE. For example, if we are selfish but start to be generous and much more.

Today’s Gospel Reading presents us the words of John the Baptist, “Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth: and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.” He calls out, “Prepare a way for the Lord,” and his words are equally meant for us as for the people he directly spoke to. We are in preparations mode, preparing not just for the many beautiful facets of the celebration but preparing for the Lord. May our valleys be filled and our mountains and hills be leveled, may our winding roads be made straight, and the rough ways of our lives be made smooth, so that the Messiah may rush into our lives unimpeded. And may we see the salvation of our God, for, indeed, the very name Jesus means God Saves.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Saint Luke, pray for us! Rev. Prince A. Raja

This is a requirement for 3rd grade through high school; students will be required to sign in for confessions. Father Prince will be available from 6:00 to 7:20 pm to hear confessions that evening. Students may come and go for confession at their leisure or may choose to stay for 7:30PM Mass.

Retirement Fund for Religious: Aging religious need your help. In the United States today, there are more than 33,000 senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. These religious worked tirelessly in Catholic schools, hospitals, and agencies, usually for little to no pay. As a result, many religious communities lack adequate savings for retirement and eldercare. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care and more. Please be generous. Envelopes for your contributions can be found at the entrances of Church. Please give to those who have given a lifetime.
