PASTORAL REFLECTION

Solemnity of the Ascension: Tell the World that Jesus Lives

The disciples climbed the hill in Galilee and saw the Lord being taken up into heaven. But first he gave them a mandate and a promise. The mandate was to go, make disciples of all nations, baptize them in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all that I have commanded you. The promise was that they would not do this alone: Know that I am with you always, until the end of the age.

The angels in today's gospel are saying this to us, "Men of Galilee, men of the New Israel, men of the Church why are you looking up? Women of Galilee, women of the New Israel, women of the Church, don't look at the sky. And, all of you, stop contemplating. Now, get to work. Others need to know about the heights and depths of God's working in our lives."

And so we are told to tell the world that Jesus lives. "Know that I am with you always." The Solemnity of the Ascension is a call for us to tell the world that Jesus is still with us.

The Feast of the Ascension marks the completion of Christ's work of salvation. Having accomplished his mission on earth Jesus returns to his rightful place at the side of the Father. Even though he no longer lives with us the work of God continues in the world with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles which we celebrate in this week.

BEET Recipient: The Diocese of LaCrosse and the Bishop's Education Endowment Trust (BEET) are pleased to announce that the Sacred Heart-Spring Valley project entitled, "Steubenville Catholic Youth Conference 2017," is the recipient of an $800 grant. The award is the result of a comprehensive process of consideration by the BEET Catechesis Committee, the BEET Board of Directors, and Bishop William Patrick Callahan, for the apostolic work of supporting Catholic education through catechesis of our youth. More grant aid requests were made to the Bishop's Education Endowment Trust than could be honored. As a recipient of the award, you have reason to be confident in the worthiness of your project. Thank you to Kelly Johnson for writing and submitting the BEET application. Thank you to the Diocese of LaCrosse, Bishop Callahan, and the BEET Committee for the award. And thank you to all the parishioners who contribute to the Diocesan Annual Appeal – if not for your support, these BEET grants would not be possible.

This Week in FORMED: For those of you that regularly check out Formed.org for great Catholic content, you've recently noticed a bit of a change to the structure. The headings are now Study, Watch, Listen and Read and the site is organized to make what you want to look at very easy to find. If you haven't been to FORMED.ORG lately, come check out all the great content you've been missing out on. This week-end we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord. In the reading from Acts as Jesus is preparing to ascend back to His Father, he leaves his apostles with the great commission, to go out and preach the Gospel to all the ends of the earth. This is our call still today and Fr. Mike Schmitz reminds of just that in his powerful and engaging talk "We Must Go Out" featured on the Home Page. Be reminded of the Power of the Holy Spirit in your life just in time for the Solemnity of Pentecost next week-end. Log in to Formed by visiting www.formed.org/register –and entering in Parish Code: CQH26
