Accept the Primacy of God and His Kingdom

Hi to you all! As I had given a brief introduction about myself in last week’s bulletin, this week I would like to thank Father Kevin Louis, Deacon Ray, Parish secretary and parishioners for their clarifying answers whenever I had some doubts. Last Sunday’s Fall Festival 2015 at Boyceville was remarkable and the food was outstanding. My compliments and appreciation to all the people who worked to make the celebration a wonderful one!

Word of God for this Sunday – the 28th Sunday in ordinary time – invites us to examine our attitude towards money and wealth. In the first reading, King Solomon, who is acclaimed as the author of the book of Wisdom, sings:

*I prayed, and understanding was given me;
I entreated and the spirit of Wisdom came to me.
I esteemed her (Wisdom) more than scepters and thrones
Compared with her, I held riches as nothing (Wis 7:7-8).*

In the Gospel today, Jesus warns us: “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!” (Mk 10:24) This statement shocks us just as it ‘astonished’ the disciples of Jesus (v.26). This discourse of Jesus on wealth is prompted by the encounter between Jesus and the man (‘young man’ as Mt 19 would have it) who wanted to inherit eternal life. The man was not able to respond to the invitation of Jesus because he was possessed by his possessions. So, what is the Word of God this week inviting us to? What was the attitude of Jesus to money and wealth?

First of all, we do know that Jesus had access to funds and He used money:

- When the gospels speak of Judas Iscariot, they also refer to him as one who ‘had charge of the common fund’ (Jn 13:29).
- In Lk 8:1-3, Luke talks about the women disciples of Jesus. He mentions their names: “Mary surnamed the Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others...” And Luke adds, “And they provided for Jesus and His company out of their own resources.”

And yet, Jesus would make statements like:

- “Blessed are you who are poor: the kingdom of God is yours.” (Lk 6:20)

The message of the Word of God can be summarized in three simple statements:

1. Accept the primacy of God and His Kingdom: The repeated message of Jesus is very clear – seek first the kingdom of God (Lk 12:31) and the rest will be given to you.

2. Use things and love people: We live in a use-and-throw society. We open up cans and we throw them. And we use people and we throw them. The Word of God invites us to prioritize. Yes, to use things and love people.

3. Be free not to be possessed by your possessions: If our identity as human persons is locked into our possessions, then when we lose our possessions what will become of our identity? On the other hand, if our identity comes from the fact that we are created in the image of God – than the Kingdom of God is within us. The unnamed man in the Gospel today was not able to respond to his heart’s deepest desire because of his shallow desire for his possessions. And notice that he remains unnamed, without an identity! On the other hand, the disciples who ‘left everything and followed Jesus,’ – we know their names today. Their identity comes from their relationship with Jesus. Indeed, they were given a hundredfold!

So then, let us pray that we accept the primacy of God and His kingdom in our lives, so that we only use things, but love people. And in this way, we will be free not to be possessed by our possessions.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Saint Luke, pray for us! Rev. Prince A. Jesuraja
