Solemnity of All Saints: Heroes

The Feast of All Saints refers to all those baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory. It also certainly includes all human persons who lived a good life sincerely in accordance with the convictions of their conscience. This feast is celebrated on the first of November in the West, since 837 when Pope Gregory IV ordered its church-wide observance. All Saints’ Day has been observed by the Church as an occasion to celebrate in a special way all its saints, past and present, whatever be their country of origin, race, or denomination, and whether they are known to us personally or not. On this day we remember the saints, who may have been forgotten, or never been specifically honored. But they are holy persons whose examples we aim to imitate and their lives we admire while, at the same time, we ask for their prayers and intercessions.

We are looking for heroes in this world. Perhaps, we need to define what a hero is. In the ancient Greek myths a hero was a Ulysses or a Hercules, someone of extraordinary strength who completed a seemingly impossible mission. The operative word to define a Greek hero would be courage. Did they have the courage to complete their mission in life?

There are also heroes in the Old Testament. Abraham, Samson, David, Deborah and Ruth were all heroes because, against seemingly impossible odds, they still allowed God’s plan to work through them. They had the courage to stand by God’s plan and to bring that plan to completion. In the New Testament, Jesus Christ is the greatest of all heroes.

The saints whom we honor today give us an example of people emptying themselves to allow God’s plan to work in them, people who have the courage to be genuine heroes. They are not plaster or plastic statues of unreal people in pietistic poses. They are real people from every walk of life who met the challenge of Christianity and conquered. They are priests and nuns, like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Sienna. They are married people and single people, like Thomas More and Rose of Lima. They are very old and very young, like Theresa of Avila and Theresa of Lisieux. They are the wealthy, like Thomas Beckett, the middle class, like Ignatius Loyola, and poor, like Martin de Porres. They were geniuses, like Thomas Aquinas, and people of simple intelligence but vast wisdom, like John Vianney. All of these and all whom I could not possibly name accepted the challenge of Christianity and had the courage to wash their baptismal robes in the Blood of the Lamb, as the Book of Revelation says in the First reading of this week. They had the courage to live the sacrifice of Christ in their lives. They had the courage to make the love of God real in the world.

Well, we are here today to pray for the courage to follow the Lord. We pray for the courage to put God first in our lives. May the Lord help us to stand for Him and with Him in our lives. Today we pray for the courage to be genuine heroes.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Saint Luke, pray for us! Rev. Prince A. Raja

BRIEFLY NOTED

The Year of Mercy: inaugurated by Pope Francis begins December 8 and in dioceses throughout the world on Sunday, December 13. The inauguration of the Jubilee in our diocese will take place at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph the Workman at the 10:30am Mass and at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, at the Latin Mass at 9:00am. You are most welcome to attend one of these celebrations. Another way to receive God’s mercy and be strengthened in our relationship with Jesus Christ during this Holy Year is to make a pilgrimage. A pilgrimage involves setting aside time from our normal routine to focus more on the Person of Christ and His love for us. Bishop Callahan has named a Pilgrimage Church for each deanery. In most cases, these Churches were chosen because they are dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our parish of Sacred Heart of Jesus, Spring Valley has been selected as a Pilgrimage Church. The list of Pilgrimage Churches and many other resources can be found at the diocesan website: <http://www.dioc.org/mercy/>.

Elmwood CCD Families: A Day Trip to La Crosse, Offered to 8th - 12th grades. Friday Nov. 6th. There is no school in Elmwood that day, looking to have a good turnout. We will be touring the Cathedral, the Diocesan Center, Christ the King Chapel and visit with Bishop Callahan. Then onto tour St Rose Convent-Chapel of the Angels and lastly tour the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Information will be sent home with students on Sunday. Please call 715-664-8975 Marilyn Bowell DRE and Youth Minister.

World Mission Sunday: In his Message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis wrote: “World Mission Day is a privileged moment when the faithful of various continents engage in prayer and concrete gestures of solidarity in support of the young Churches in mission lands.” May we joyfully show our solidarity with our brothers and sisters around the world by our spiritual and financial support of the missions. Envelopes for your contribution are available at the entrances of church.
