32nd Sunday in Ordinary time: A Cheerful Giver

God loves a cheerful giver, the one who is willing to part with things without any hesitation. Compassion and care for others surely prompt our own giving. To give to the other involves sacrifice on the part of the giver. In the first reading a prophet offers life to a poor widow and her son. The woman only has to respond in faith and God will take care of her needs. She generously and willingly gave to the prophet what little she had and God blessed her abundantly.

When the books of Old Testament refer to the poor they often list three categories of people: the stranger, the orphan and the widow (Deut 14:29). The Hebrew Scriptures constantly invite people to be sensitive to the needs of these three types of vulnerable people: the stranger, the orphan and the widow (Ps 94:6; Jer 7:11). When it talks about the justice of God, the Old Testament speaks of the God who defends the stranger, the orphan and the widow (Ps 146:9). It is in this context that the first reading of today becomes even more meaningful.

Today’s Second Reading taken from the Letter to the Hebrews describes the sacrifice of Jesus against the background of the Day of Atonement. The passage tells us that Jesus died once for all time and for all people when he made his perfect sacrifice to remove sin.

In the Gospel, the poor widow received the praise of Jesus because she put her last money, though she was poor. As Jesus said, “She gave all she had to live on.”

The story of the widow is only the culmination in a series of people in the Gospels who abandon their false securities in the presence of God:

- The Magi open their treasures and humbly prostrate before the baby in whom they have seen the presence of God (Mt 2:1-11);
- The disciples when called by Jesus leave their boats, hired men and even their father and follow Jesus (Mk 1:20, also Mt 4:22);
- When Mathew the tax collector encounters Jesus he is ready to leave his table and follow Jesus (Lk 5:27-28);
- Zacchaeus is willing to give half of his property to the poor (Lk 19:9);
- Bartimaeus, the blind beggar, leaves his upper garment and comes to Jesus in a symbolic nakedness (Mk 10:50); and,
- The Samaritan woman after her encounter with Jesus leaves her empty water jar at the feet of Jesus in a symbolic abandonment of her past (Jn 4:28).

A question that we can all ask ourselves then is: what is it that I am still holding on to – that prevents me from totally surrendering myself to God?

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Saint Luke, pray for us! Rev. Prince A. Raja

BRIEFLY NOTED

The Year of Mercy: will be inaugurated by Pope Francis December 8 and in dioceses throughout the world on Sunday, December 13. The inauguration of the Jubilee in our diocese will take place at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph the Workman at the 10:30am Mass and at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, at the Latin Mass at 9:00am. You are most welcome to attend one of these celebrations. Another way to receive God’s mercy and be strengthened in our relationship with Jesus Christ during this Holy Year is to make a pilgrimage. A pilgrimage involves setting aside time from our normal routine to focus more on the Person of Christ and His love for us. Bishop Callahan has named a Pilgrimage Church for each deanery. In most cases, these Churches were chosen because they are dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our parish of Sacred Heart of Jesus, Spring Valley has been selected as a Pilgrimage Church. The list of Pilgrimage Churches and many other resources can be found at the diocesan website: <http://www.dioc.org/mercy/>.

World Mission Sunday: In his Message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us: “Mission is part of the ‘grammar’ of faith, something essential for those who listen to the voice of the Spirit who whispers ‘Come’ and ‘Go forth’ Those who follow Christ cannot fail to be missionaries.....” May we be blessed with a spirit of mission and of a deeper and ongoing encounter with the Lord as we show our solidarity with our brothers and sisters around the world by our spiritual and financial support of the missions. Envelopes for your contribution are available at the entrances of church.
