PASTORAL REFLECTION

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, he will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

Today’s Gospel passage is the conclusion of Jesus’ discourse with his disciples. It is about the end of time, the coming of the Son of Man, and the final judgment. We hear this description of the final judgment at the conclusion of our liturgical year, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. In the context of Matthew’s Gospel, this passage might also be read as a conclusion of Matthew’s report on Jesus’ life and ministry; the remaining chapters report the events of Jesus’ Passion and Resurrection.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus describes to his disciples the scene of the judgment of the Son of Man. All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate them as a shepherd separates sheep and goats upon their return from the pasture. The judgments made by the Son of Man will be based upon the acts of mercy shown to the least ones—the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. Indeed, Jesus, who suffered on the Cross, identifies himself with the least ones.

Recall that last week’s parable of the talents taught us that the gifts that we have been given are intended to be used for the service of others, especially the least among us. Our judgment before God will be based not only on how we have used these gifts and talents, but also on how we have extended ourselves in service to these least ones. Indeed, Jesus tells us that whenever we have served these least ones, we have served Christ himself.

When we read today’s Gospel in the context of the chapters that follow in Matthew’s Gospel, we learn the extent to which Jesus identifies with the least ones. In accepting death on the cross, Jesus shows himself to be one of the hungry, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. To accept Jesus is to accept him who suffered and died on the Cross as one of the least ones.

Retirement Fund for Religious: Elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests need your help. All of us, in some way or another, have benefitted from their many years of service in Catholic schools, hospitals, and parishes. Often they received little to no pay, and now there is a shortage in retirement savings. Your gift to the national Retirement Fund for Religious provides funding for medication, nursing care, and more. The collection for this campaign will be at Holy Mass the weekend of December 9-10. Thank you for your support! Roughly 94 percent of donations to the fund directly aids senior religious and their communities.

This Week in FORMED: This week-end marks the end of the Church year with a Feast celebrating Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe. To unpack what this Solemnity means, check out the series Opening the Word found on the Home Page of Formed.org. The Gospel reminds us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters we do for him. You can see this in action in the movie "St. Giuseppe Moscati; Doctor to the Poor" on the Watch tab. If you're looking ahead to getting ready for Advent next week, Fr. Robert Barron has a collection of Advent Homilies called "A Journey Through Advent," to get you in the spirit of the season Find all of this content and so much more on Formed.org. CATHOLIC AND LUTHERAN CONTINUING EDUCATION: the planning group for the October 29 "From Conflict to Communion: Lutheran-Catholic Commemoration of the Reformation in 2017" Prayer Service has scheduled four sessions of Catholic/Lutheran continuing education. The third session is Tuesday, November 28, Notre Dame Catholic Church, 117 Allen St., Chippewa Falls at 7:00PM. Enter the former school which is between the Church and the Hyde Center from Allen St. Presenters are Rev. Phil Ruge-Jones, Associate Pastor at Grace Lutheran Church in Eau Claire, and Fr. John Schultz, Chaplain at HSHS Sacred Heart and St. Joseph Hospitals. Content includes a historical sketch of the Lutheran Reformation and the Catholic response plus basic themes of Luther's theology in light of Lutheran/Catholic dialogue. The public is invited. The final session will be December 5.

The Mass schedules for Christmas and New Year's will be in next week's bulletin.
